

Join in-person
or online!

BUILDING LOCAL COMMUNITIES TO ENHANCE THE INTEGRATION AND HOUSING OF ASYLUM SEEKERS AND REFUGEES IN EUROPE

The conference will present findings from two EU projects “MERGING” and “INTEgreat”, introducing good practices in the field of integration and housing for migrant communities.

THURSDAY,
JUNE 8, 2023

UNIVERSITY OF GOTHENBURG

h 09:00-15:15

Register here

AGENDA

Room F7, Psychology dept.
University of Gothenburg
Address : Haraldsgatan 1,
413 14 Gothenburg

- 09:00 Arrival & Check-in
- 09:30 Welcome Greetings from Project Coordinators
University Jean Moulin Lyon, Ballafon
- 09:40 Innovative integration strategies in the areas of employment, training, access to healthcare & social cohesion
The findings of the INTEgreat project
University of Bologna
- 10:05 The role of housing as a driver of refugees' integration
The findings of the MERGING project
University of Valencia
- 10:40 Coffee Break
- 10:50 Panel discussion: The need for a holistic approach to integration
Ballafon, UJML, Quatorze, University of Valencia, University of Gothenburg.
Moderated by Noémie Dominguez (UJML)
- 11:30 Presentation of Integration Working Group in Limerick
Doras
- 12:00 Lunch break and networking
- 13:30 Workshop: Evaluating social integration in its complexity: key indicators
Only for MERGING and INTEgreat partners
COTA
- 15:00 Closing remarks
- 15:15 End of conference

THE PROJECTS

The project aims to build a stronger integration strategy and ecosystem for refugees and asylum seekers in Europe.

An interdisciplinary study of migrant integration through participatory housing initiatives.

Funded by the European Union